e.tv is home to award-winning current affairs shows. Make an appointment to get up to date with the latest in-depth coverage of burning topics, exposing crooks and criminals, crime trends and updates, and the latest headline news in South Africa. All these informative entertaining and sometimes suspenseful shows only on e.tv - Sunday nights from 6-8pm.

Seasoned investigative journalist Devi Sankaree Govender is a well-respected broadcaster with a trademark sense of humour.

The pint-sized presenter has landed her own show aptly titled Devi and will be bringing you 30 minutes of Sunday night infotainment, taking viewers into the lives of a range of extraordinary guests, chasing crooks, and holding them accountable. Sundays at 6pm.

Crime Watch with Yusuf Abramjee keeps you in the loop about local issues, such as crime, safety, and community events. Sundays 6.30pm C2 General South Africa Tonight.

We help you make sense of the day's top stories and unpack how it affects you. Compelling reports and live guests from across South Africa and around the world. Presented by the power duo Tumelo and Francis. Sundays at 7pm.

Checkpoint, anchored by established journalist and Executive Producer Nkepile Mabuse, has become one of the country's must-watch investigative current affairs programmers. Its award-winning journalists are known for digging deep, exposing injustice and holding those responsible to account, without fear or favor. The show has carved a space for itself as the public's protector and defender of the rights of the most vulnerable. Sundays at 7.30pm.

Make a date. No need to go anywhere, we will bring you the updates. Tune in every Sunday night from 6pm on e.tv. Visit www.etv.co.za for the latest updates.
