

Pippa Green to present talk on TRC in ICA's 2017 Great Texts/Big Questions lecture series

Well-known journalist, Pippa Green will be presenting a lecture on the resonance of the TRC today, as part of the Institute for Creative Arts' 2017 Great Texts/Big Questions lecture series. It has been more than 20 years since the first TRC hearings and Green's talk will be based on the series of podcasts she did for Primedia in which she interviewed 13 of the former TRC commissioners.

The lecture will be followed by an open question and answer session and will be held at the Anatomy Lecture Theatre, Old Medical School Building at UCT's Hiddingh Campus, 31 - 37 Orange Street, Cape Town.
