

IntegriSure appoints Sandro Geyser as managing director

IntegriSure has promoted Sandro Geyser to the position of managing director of the IntegriSure Group of Companies.

Geyser started his career at IntegriSure in 2006 and focussed on portfolio management, IT, business intelligence and call centre management. He also spearheaded some of the most highly prioritised projects, which led to the remarkable growth of IntegriSure as a provider of niche short-term insurance solutions within the financial services market.
