Secutel Technologies achieves ISO 27001 certification

Secutel Technologies has achieved the International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) 27001 certification for its implementation of an effective information security system that complies with one of the most stringent international standards.

ISO 27001 is the international standard developed specifically for Information Security Management Systems (ISMS), requiring that a company uses a systematic approach to managing sensitive information and ensuring data security.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com