

Transnet reopens one line on North Corridor

By Rahat Sandhu

21 Nov 2022

Transnet has reopened one of the two lines on the North corridor which was closed earlier this month following the derailment of a train carrying export coal.

Source: Col André Kritzing via Wikimedia Commons

The logistics company said that operations have commenced and freight rail teams are working to clear the staged trains and backlog.

Transnet strike to hit production and exports, says Kumba Iron Ore

Nelson Banya 11 Oct 2022

Insufficient rail capacity and poorly maintained infrastructure have been hurdles for mining companies which have been seeking to export more coal as demand surges following a European Union ban on fossil fuel imports from Russia.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Reporting by Rahat Sandhu; Editing by Kirsten Donovan.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>