

New additions to KZN's Ballito Junction shopping mall

KwaZulu-Natal's Ballito Junction Regional Mall, which opened in March 2017, is welcoming a host of new brands into its 80,000sqm retail space this year.

New at the centre, opening in July and August, are shops from Puma, Laser Boutique, Hearing Lab, and Smock & Stitch. Cielo will open its furniture, décor and homeware offering in the current Exclusive Books space, and the latter will be moving opposite Poetry, near to Woolworths.

Lindt will unwrap its new store at the centre on 1 October 2019, and Nespresso is also brewing up its unique blend of brand-and-experience for Ballito customers and is planning to open at the centre in the near future. Catering to health-conscious shoppers in the province, the first Wellness Warehouse in KwaZulu-Natal will be unveiled at Ballito Junction in mid-October 2019.

Also, five new offerings have opened at the centre in recent weeks, including fashion outlet Relabelled, Le Coq Sportif, Ou Hout Meubels, a Sunglass Hut kiosk and the local flavours of Harry's Delights.

CEO of Ballito Junction Regional Mall, Geraldine Jorgensen, says: "We are thrilled to add a great new selection of top names to the mall that are now lining up for space based on Ballito Junction's two-year track record of successful trading.

This is supported by the ongoing growth of the wonderful Ballito community, with the vibrant area continuing to attract meaningful residential development.”

Ballito Junction is owned by the investment consortium of Menlyn Maine Investment Holdings and Flanagan & Gerard Property Development & Investment. It features a line-up of approximately 200 stores with seven anchor tenants including Pick n Pay, Woolworths, Checkers, Edgars, Game, Clicks and Dis-Chem.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>