

The Early Hours wins Get Out Of The Garage

The Converse 2014 Get Out Of The Garage competition had a total of 335 acts entering their track singles this year, which were judged by Catherine Grenfell, HHP, and Darryl Torr, who cut the list down to 10, from which the Early Hours band emerged the winner. In the next few months they will head to London to introduce their unique music style to the rest of the world.

Converse will also be announcing the winning fan to accompany Early Hours overseas on Facebook and via Twitter.
