

ANC Women's League president visits LFP Training

Bathabile Dlamini, who is ANC Women's League president and minister of women, recently visited the LFP Training's Johannesburg campus.

Dlamini was taken on a guided tour of the facilities and met learners. During her tour, she gave talks on women empowerment, women against abuse, and women's rights to both learners and staff.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>