

Ithala unveils renovated banking facility

KwaZulu-Natal Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs MEC, Sihle Zikalala, attended the unveiling of Ithala SOC Limited's newly renovated banking facility at the Umlazi Mega City in Durban. VIP clients, employees of Ithala, government officials, and members of the media also attended the unveiling.

From left to right: Imraan Mohamed, Leigh-Ann Thomas, Selvan Moodley, Lauren Kolia and Kamarlasen Padayachee

From left to right: Mrs Ncamisile Annatoria Dlamini, teacher, Nonhlanhla Mqadi, Ithala SOC Limited regional sales manager and Ayanda Ndlovu, head: Insurance Ithala SOC Limited

From left to right: Levine Govender, senior consultant at KPMG, Stuart Johnson, Ithala SOC Limited head: channels and Shane Moodley, Ithala SOC Limited head: segments

From left to right: At the Mega City branch launch, Kamarlasen Padayachee, Selvan Moodley, Stuart Johnson, Ithala SOC Limited, Sandile Xolo, Ithala SOC Limited, Leigh-Ann Thomas, Imraan Mohamed, Lauren Kolic and Eton Bartlett, branch designerd Eton Bartlett, Branch designer

From left to right: Sandile Xolo, Ithala SOC Limited marketing and communications manager; Sthembiso Buthelezi, a client and Kgomotso More, Ithala SOC Limited brand manager

From left to right: Sihle Gwala; Sandile Xolo, Peter Ireland, Ithala SOC Limited CEO, Honourable MEC Sihle Zikalala, Shane Moodley, Ayanda Ndlovu, Stuart Johnson and Malose Kekana, Ithala SOC Limited chairman

From left to right: Kgomotso More, brand manager, Amanda Gumedede, marketing administrator, Shane Moodley, Ithala SOC Limited head: segment and Sindi Sabelo, Ithala SOC Limited PR and CSI liaison

From left to right: Stuart Johnson, Sebenzile Hadebe, PR intern, Sibongiseni Bhengu, PR intern, Sibongiseni Derrick Bhengu, a client, Zanele Duma, a client and Angie Mabanda, Ithala branch manager

The new facility will provide customer comfort and convenience and the new customer engagement platform model will be rolled out across the province.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>