

Vodacom food handover at Ohlange High School

On Thursday, 23 July, Vodacom Kwazulu-Natal visited Ohlange High School to distribute food hampers which they packed last week as part of their Mandela Day initiative.

Josh Reid
They will be distributing food hampers to four schools in the Inanda area - Dabeka High School, Amouti Primary, Siyaphumulela Primary and Ohlange High School. Ohlange High School was chosen by President Nelson Mandela as the place where he would cast his vote in the first racially inclusive election in South Africa in 1994.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>