

New general manager appointed @ Experience It

Marisa Peters has been appointed general manager of Experience It – a recently launched, automated, 3-in-1 registration system for marketing and sales events, using the best blend of South African information technology and event management expertise on the web.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>