

Short&Sweet film experience kicks off

The fourth season of the highly anticipated alternative film festival, Short and Sweet kicked off in the Mother City on Tuesday, 23 September 2014.

Hosted at the German Club, the grandiose opening not only featured a variety of short films from both local and international directors, but also a juxtaposition of audio visual arts to keep the guests intrigued and entertained.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>