

Board of Healthcare launches Trustee Development Training certification

The Board of Healthcare Funders of Southern Africa (BHF) has introduced a Trustee Development Training certification in support of the medical schemes industry.

The training programme is recognised by the Wits Business School.

The programme will also be aimed at principal officers, scheme management, HR, legal and forensic people who are usually involved in scheme activities.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>